A WORD TO THE 1988 NATIONAL SERVICEMEN

Welcome to the South African army!

As you now begin your National Service, you become co-responsible for countering the insurgency onslaught against our Fatherland. You are part of a team now, and making a success of your National Service will depend mainly on your attitude, motivation, efficiency and the will to fight and the will to win.

The SA Army undertakes to give you thorough training, to prepare you physically, technically and tactically, and also to provide for your everyday needs as a soldier.

It is expected of you to do what is your duty conscientiously and with diligence and to fight with discipline and determination for the future of your country and nation. We know that we want to win, and we know that we can win. Our cause is right.

Time is on our side; we are fighting from a position of strength. Final victory is certain!

A WORD TO THE PARENT/WIFE

The Republic of South Africa is a winner. Our young National Servicemen are full of ideals for the creation of a safe and happy Fatherland. We are proud of what they achieve.

Your son/husband, is now part of this National Service force, and you as parent or wife are closely involved in the defence of the Republic of South Africa.

The SA Army undertakes to give your son/husband the best possible training, to give every attention to his physical and spiritual well-being, and to keep you informed of his circumstances.

Your active, positive support and encouragements is necessary for the motivation, drive and general happiness of your son/husband.

Each one of us must work, work hard, work intelligently and work together.

And ... we must believe!

'N WOORD AAN DIE DIENSPLIGTIGES VAN 1988

Welkom in die Suid-Afrikaanse Leër!

Met die aanvang van u diensplig neem u medeverantwoordelikheid vir die bekamping van die insurgensie-aanslag teen ons Vaderland. U is nou deel van 'n span en die sukses van u diensplig sal grootliks afhang van u gesindheid, motivering, bekwaamheid en die wil om te veg en die wil om te wen.

Die SA Leër onderneem om u 'n deeglike opleiding te gee, u fisies, tegnies en takties te bekwaam en om na u daaglikse behoeftes as soldaat om te sien.

Van u word verwag om elke dag u pligte nougeset en met ywer na te kom en gedissiplineerd en vasberade te veg vir die toekoms van u land en volk. Ons weet ons wil wen en ons weet ons kan wen. Ons saak is reg.

Tyd is aan ons kant. Ons voer die stryd uit 'n posisie van krag. Uiteindelijke oorwinning is seker!

'N WOORD AAN DIE OUER/EGGENOTE

Die Republiek van Suid-Afrika is 'n wenner! Die jong dienspligtiges is vervul met die ideale om 'n veilige en gelukkige Vaderland te skep. Ons is trots op wat hulle bereik!

Nou is u seun/eggenoot deel van hierdie diensplig-mag en is u as ouer/eggenote ook ten nouste betrokke by die verdediging van die Republiek van Suid-Afrika.

Die SA Leër onderneem om u seun/eggenoot die bes moontlike opleiding te gee, noulettend om te sien na sy liggaamlike en geestelike welsyn en om u ingelig te hou ten opsigte van sy omstandighede.

U daadwerklike, positiewe ondersteuning en aanmoediging is noodsaaklik vir die motivering, dryfkrag en geluk van u seun/eggenoot.

Ons elkeen moet werk, hard werk, slim werk en saam werk.

En ... ons moet glo!
